- b) Sonneborn-Burger
- c) Greater number of Games Won
- d) Number of games played with Black

9. Fair Play Panel

9.1 The Fair Play panel is in charge of overseeing the Fair Play measures of the event and making decisions related to any violation of the Fair Play rules.

9.2 All results and standings are provisional until the Fair Play control has been completed.

9.3 The Fair Play Panel, in consultation with the Chief Arbiter, has the right to disqualify a player from the competition on the grounds of suspicion of Fair Play violation. No sanctions will be extended to other online or OTB events, nor is the decision a claim that cheating has been proven.

9.4 Disqualified players will be removed from all stages of the event and are not eligible for any prizes or titles. All points earned by such players will be awarded to their opponents.

10. Fair Play Measures

During the semi-final for the Queens Open tournament and for the final stages of the Queens' and Princesses' tournaments:

10.1 All players are required to be present in their assigned Zoom meeting at all times while their game is in progress.

10.2 The Zoom meetings will be recorded for internal Fair Play verification purposes. No recordings will be released to the public. To further protect participants' privacy, recordings will be deleted 14 days after the end of the tournament unless an incident occurs, in which case the recordings may be kept for judicial purposes.

10.3 Players are required to write their real name in Zoom call in the following way: "Country Code-Surname" e.g., "CZE-Mencikova".

10.4 Players are required to have their cameras and microphones on and share their screens at all times while they are playing. It is prohibited to have any other applications running on the computer other than Zoom and a web browser with the HIP platform unless they are approved by the Chief Arbiter (such as antivirus, VPN, etc.). The taskbar (or equivalent in non-Windows machines) must be visible at all times. Players can mute or turn off their speakers in order to not be disturbed during the game.

10.5 If players are asked, they must demonstrate a Task Manager check (or equivalent in other operating systems) before, during, or immediately after their game.

10.6 Players are required to stay in the area which is visible on camera at all times while their game is in progress, unless the player has received permission from the Chief Arbiter. They might be asked to show the room they are playing in with their camera. No other people are allowed to be present in the room where the player is playing at any time while a game is in progress without permission of the Chief Arbiter.

10.7 Other than the device which is being used for playing games (and has a screen-share running), no electronic communication devices or chess playing aids are permitted in the room where the player is playing. Players can only play from a computer or a laptop, not a mobile/tablet. Players are not allowed to wear headphones or other electronic device during play.

10.8 All games of the Qualification stage, Semi-final and the Final will be put through a fair play verification process involving statistical correlation analysis by the tools of HIP and the FIDE Screening Tool (Prof. Kenneth Regan).

Please check the following regulations for further fair play details - <https://fpl.fide.com/wp-content/uploads/2023/04/BEST-FAIR-PLAY-PRACTICES-FOR-ONLINE-EVENTS-.pdf>

11. Disconnections

11.1 Players are responsible for their own high-speed, stable internet connection. A stable connection is required in order to comply with regulations, maintain communication with Arbiters and participate in games on the HIP platform during the entire event.

11.2 In the case of disconnection a player may reconnect and return to the game, while there is still time on their clock, provided they are at all times compliant with Fair Play regulations unless there is a technical issue. For the avoidance of doubt, a player may not make a move on the chessboard until they have reconnected to the Zoom call, shared their screen and turned their webcam on. If a player is unable to reconnect and re-establishes compliance with Fair Play regulations before their flag falls, they will lose the game.

11.3 All disconnections will be treated in the same way unless the Chief Arbiter decides otherwise.

12. Appeals

12.1 The Organizer shall appoint the Chairperson and four other members of the Appeals Committee (one from each Continent).

12.2 A member of the Appeals Committee cannot sit in judgement in a dispute involving one player from his/her Federation.

12.3 All appeals and protests shall be submitted in writing to the Appeals Committee no later than 15 minutes after the completion of the relevant round or communication of a sanction by FPP. Contact email address will be provided at the technical meeting.

12.4 The Appeals Committee shall endeavor to make a decision at the end of each day. The tournament will continue during the decision-making process.

12.5 The written decision of the Appeals Committee arising from any dispute in respect of these Regulations is final.

12.6 In case the appeal is rejected the complainant will be charged an amount of 200 euros, to be deposited when the appeal is filed. If the appeal is rejected, the fee is not returned to the claimant.

13. Awards

13.1 All players shall receive an electronic certificate of participation.

13.2 The winner of each Qualification in the Queens' festival tournaments: Americas, Asia, Africa and Europe, will receive a physical trophy and the title of the Queens' Festival Continental Queen. The winner of the Princess Festival will receive a physical trophy. To receive their trophies the winners should send their postal address to women@fide.com after the event.

13.3 First ten winners in all qualification tournaments will be entitled to two 45-minute training sessions with Women Grandmasters. Details to be announced.

13.4 The winner of The Queen Festival Chess Tournament will be invited to the 46th World Chess Olympiad 2026 in Uzbekistan. The hotel accommodation for 3 nights full board (if the winner is U18 then accompanying person can also stay in the hotel with full board). Only the winner of the Queens' Women's Open Tournament invited to the 46th World Chess Olympiad 2026 this right cannot be passed to another player. The official Cup award ceremony for the Queens' Festival 2025 will take place during the Olympiad 2026.

13.5 The Queen Festival Chess Tournament offers a prize fund of 1000 euros. The first-place winner will receive 500 euros, the second-place winner will receive 300 euros, and the third-place winner will receive 200 euros.
